2.4 Register of Members:

- (a) The National Secretary shall establish and maintain a Register of Members which shall specify as a minimum requirement, at least the name and address of each person who is a member, the person's membership number, and the date on which the person became a member.
- (b) The Register of Members shall be kept at the place of National Administration of the Club and shall, subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993, be open for inspection, free of charge, to any member at a reasonable place and hour.

2.5 Fees and Subscriptions:

- (a) A person making application to join shall pay to the Club:
 - (i) a joining fee as determined by the National Committee; and
 - (ii) an annual subscription as determined by the National Committee; or
 - (iii) a triennial subscription as determined by the National Committee.
- (b) Joining fees and subscriptions shall be retained by the Club if the person's application for membership is approved but shall be refunded if the application is declined.
- (c) Each member shall pay an annual or triennial subscription as determined by the National Committee. The subscription shall be due on such basis as determined by the National Committee.

- (d) A Branch may levy a "Branch operating fee".
 - (i) Members retain all rights of membership of the Club if they do not pay the Branch operating fee.
 - (ii) Members have no claim to any benefits relating to the Branch operating fee if they do not pay the fee.

2.6 Meritorious Service:

Two kinds of formal recognition may be awarded by the Club: Life Membership and Odyssey Medal.

.1 Life Membership

- (a) A Life Member shall be a member who has been a continuous financial member for at least 15 years and given valued and meritorious service to the Club.
- (b) Any Branch wishing to nominate a member shall give notice in writing in the prescribed form to the National Secretary not less than 90 days before the date of the Club Annual General Meeting.
- (c) The election of Life Member will be discussed and voted upon at the Coordinators' Annual General Meeting. Nominations will be confidential and will not be disclosed prior to the Coordinators' Annual General Meeting.
- (d) To be successful, the nomination must be supported by not less than 80% of the Coordinators and National Committee members present.
- (e) The vote will be by secret ballot.
- (f) A Life Member shall be entitled to all the privileges accorded to financial members without payment of any subscriptions.
- (g) Should any person holding a Life Membership be expelled from the Club, the Life Membership and all its benefits will be cancelled.
- (h) There shall be a maximum of fifteen (15) living Life Members.

.2 Odyssey Medal

- (a) An Odyssey Medal nominee shall be a member who is not already a Life Member, and, who has been a continuous financial member for at least ten years and given valued and meritorious service to the Club, particularly at Branch level.
- (b) Any Branch wishing to nominate a member shall give notice in writing in the prescribed form to the National Secretary not less than 90 days before the date of the Club Annual General Meeting.
- (c) The election of an Odyssey Medal recipient will be discussed and voted upon at the Coordinators' Annual General Meeting. Nominations will be confidential, and will not be disclosed prior to the Coordinators' Annual General Meeting.
- (d) To be successful, the nomination must be supported by not less than 80% of the Coordinators and National Committee members present.
- (e) The vote will be by secret ballot.
- (f) Should any person holding an Odyssey Medal be expelled from the Club, the Odyssey Medal award will be cancelled.

- (g) Nominations are restricted to one per Branch per annum.
- (h) Awards are restricted to a maximum of four per annum.

2.7 Discipline:

- (a) The following behaviours are unacceptable:
 - i) Abuse or harassment of other members whilst participating in a Club or Branch event;
 - ii) Abuse or harassment of other members engaged in Club or Branch business or, because of or in relation to the office or function of that person in the Club or Branch;
 - iii) Behaviour which unreasonably puts the safety of others at risk or damages the property of the club or other members of the club or the reputation of the club
- (b) Any person who makes a formal complaint to a Coordinator is entitled to have that complaint considered in an impartial, timely and respectful manner.
- (c) In the first instance, the Coordinator of the Branch of which the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint must investigate and hear all sides of the issue. If the Coordinator then decides that the issue warrants further action then the formal process must be followed.
- (d) If the Coordinator decides that the matter should be taken further then s / he must discuss it with the Branch Committee. If, at this point, they are unable to resolve the matter to the satisfaction of all parties then a formal committee meeting must be called with the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint to review the concerns. That member must receive written notice of the concerns to be considered at the meeting.
- (e) The Branch Committee must give the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint reasonable opportunity to present her / his response to the concerns either in writing or orally at the meeting or both. That member may choose to be accompanied by a support person at the meeting.
- (f) After reviewing the evidence the Branch Committee must decide on appropriate action which may range from 'no action' to, in the most serious cases, 'expulsion' from the Club.
- (g) The Branch Secretary must inform the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint of the Branch Committee's decision in writing and within seven days. This notice must advise that member of her / his right of appeal which must be received by the Branch Secretary within seven days of receiving the written notice of the decision.
- (h) If the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint appeals the decision of the Branch Committee, then the Branch Secretary must call a meeting of all Branch Members within 21 days to consider the appeal. All parties shall state their respective cases, orally or in writing, or both. By secret ballot, the Branch Members present, excluding the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint, shall vote to either confirm or revoke the decision.
- (i) If any matter concerning discipline is not resolved satisfactorily at the Branch level, any of the parties may refer the issue to the National Committee for resolution. In such cases, the National Committee must investigate and hear all sides of the issue. The National Committee may confirm the decision reached at the Branch level, or if it considers this to be unsatisfactory, shall resolve the matter itself by following the principles of the formal process set out in 2.7 (d) to 2.7 (f) above.

3.0 GOVERNANCE

3.1 Governance of the Club:

- (a) There shall be a National Committee which, subject to these Rules and any resolution passed by the Club in general meeting:
 - (i) shall control and manage the affairs of the Club and its funds, and
 - (ii) shall perform all such acts and do all such things as appear to the Committee to be necessary or desirable to properly manage the affairs of the Club.
- (b) The National Committee shall consist of:
 - (i) the National President,
 - (ii) the National Vice President,
 - (iii) the National Secretary,
 - (iv) the National Treasurer, and
 - (v) three ordinary members.
- (c) The National Committee shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Club in accordance with the Rules.
- (d) Each elected member of the National Committee shall hold office until the time at the next Club Annual General Meeting when all positions are declared vacant.
- (e) In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the elected membership of the National Committee, that committee may appoint a Club member to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed shall hold office until the time at the next Club Annual General Meeting when all positions are declared vacant.
- (f) No member shall hold an office bearer position on the National Committee whilst simultaneously holding an office bearer position on a Branch Committee.

3.2 Governance of Branches:

- (a) The establishment of a Branch of the Club shall be subject to the grant of a charter by the National Committee which shall have the power to withdraw, or place conditions on the continuation of the Branch where it is considered for good reason to be in the best interests of the Club.
- (b) There shall be a Branch Committee of each Branch of the Club, which, subject to these rules and the reasonable direction of the National Committee, shall conduct the affairs of the Club where the Branch is established.
- (c) Each Branch Committee shall consist of:
 - (i) the Coordinator,
 - (ii) the Vice Coordinator (if required by the Branch),
 - (iii) the Branch Secretary,
 - (iv) the Branch Treasurer or, if the branch prefers, the Secretary / Treasurer, and

- (v) at least one ordinary member.
- (d) Each elected member of the Branch Committee shall hold office until the time at the next Branch Annual General Meeting when all positions are declared vacant.
- (e) In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the elected membership of the Branch Committee, that committee may appoint a Branch member to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed shall hold office until the time at the next Branch Annual General Meeting when all positions are declared vacant.
- (f) Members proposing to form a new Branch shall forward their proposal to the National Committee including an indication of the proposed branch boundaries and the number of potential members. In deciding whether the new Branch shall be established, the National Committee will take into account the wishes of affected branches and all members who would be included in the new branch.
- (g) If the boundaries of a proposed new Branch encroach on an existing branch or branches, then the National Committee must carry out a secret ballot of those members who would be included in the new branch. Of the votes cast 66% must be in favour for the new Branch to be formed.
- (h) Where not less than 75% of the Coordinators are shown to agree on a matter they wish raised as a Special Resolution, the Coordinators may propose the Special Resolution for consideration at a scheduled meeting of the National Committee, or at a Coordinators' Meeting. The Coordinators must give the National Secretary at least 21 days notice in writing of the Special Resolution which is to be included in the Agenda for the Meeting. Such notice shall contain the names and respective Branches of the Coordinators supporting the Special Resolution. All Coordinators have the right to attend, speak and vote at the meeting in relation to the Special Resolution. Not less than 75% of the votes cast must be in favour of the Special Resolution for it to be adopted.
- (i) Every Branch is required to maintain and operate a bank account in the name of the Branch, which shall be operated only by a minimum of two members of the Branch Committee, subject to Rule 4.2.
- (j) In the case of the winding up or dissolution of a Branch:
 - (i) any assets shall not be distributed among the Branch members nor to other Branches, but shall be transferred to the Club to be held in trust by the National Committee; and,
 - (ii) once a new Branch is reformed in accordance with these Rules within the same general boundaries as the previous Branch, the National Committee shall return the assets to that Branch.

3.3 Election of Committees:

.1 Conduct of Elections

- (a) At each Annual General Meeting of the Club or Branch, the member presiding shall declare that all positions on the Committee are vacant after all the business of the meeting and the retiring committee has been properly dealt with.
- (b) Upon the declaration being made, the members present shall appoint one of their number to conduct the election of the new committee. Should a ballot be required, at least two scrutineers, neither of whom is a candidate for any position, should be appointed.
- (c) On completion of the election of all committee members, the elected Coordinator shall assume the chair and continue with the business of the meeting.

.2 Nomination of Candidates

- (a) National Committee: The National Secretary shall call for nominations for all positions by way of a notice published in the September edition of the Ulyssian prior to the Annual General Meeting.
- (b) Branch Committees: The Branch Secretary shall call for nominations for all positions by way of a notice to all members of the Branch. This may be done by way of a notice in the edition of the Ulyssian circulated to members not less than 60 days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting. Where this is not published for reasons beyond the control of the Branch Committee, other appropriate communication that informs all branch members may be used.
- (c) Such notices shall state the closing date for nominations, and the date, time and place of the Annual General Meeting of the Club or Branch.
- (d) In the first instance, nominations shall be made in writing and signed by two members of the Club, and endorsed by the written consent of the candidate. A candidate may be nominated for more than one position.
- (e) Nominations for National Committee must be received by the National Secretary by the first Friday of November prior to the National Annual General Meeting. Nominations for Branch Committees must be received by the Branch Secretary not less than 30 days prior to the Branch Annual General Meeting.
- (f) The National Secretary shall publish all the nominations for the National Committee in the December edition of the Ulyssian prior to the Annual General Meeting.

.3 Election of Candidates

- (a) If there is more than one nomination for any office bearer position then a ballot shall be held; if there is only one candidate nominated for any position then that candidate shall take the position.
- (b) If there are insufficient written nominations for any positions, then nominations shall be called from the floor at the Annual General Meeting.
- (c) If after calling for nominations from the floor, there are vacant positions remaining on the committee, then these shall be deemed to be casual vacancies.
- (d) If the number of nominations received for any position or positions on a committee exceeds the vacancy or vacancies to be filled, a ballot shall be held.
- (e) The ballot shall be conducted by secret ballot at the Annual General Meeting in such usual and proper manner as the retiring Committee may direct.

.4 Postal Votes

- (a) Members are entitled to vote by postal vote on any matter set out in the notice convening the meeting by lodging a vote with the Secretary of the committee concerned, not less than 14 days prior to a National Meeting and not less than 24 hours prior to the start of a Branch Meeting.
- (b) Postal votes must be submitted in the prescribed form in a sealed envelope, and marked SECRET BALLOT. Failure to so mark the envelope shall render the member's vote invalid.
- (c) All envelopes marked SECRET BALLOT received by the Secretary shall be delivered unopened to a member appointed to conduct the election of members of the Committee.

3.4 Committee Meetings

- (a) Each committee shall hold at least six meetings per year at such time and place as the committee may determine.

- (b) Additional meetings may be called by the President or Coordinator, or by any other two members of the Committee.
- (c) Oral or written notice of a Committee meeting shall be given by its Secretary to each member of the committee at least 48 hours (or such period as may be unanimously agreed upon by the members of the committee) before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.
- (d) The quorum for a Committee meeting is a majority of the committee members.
- (e) The President or Coordinator (or in her / his absence, the Vice President or Vice Coordinator) shall preside at meetings.
- (f) Decisions at meetings shall be determined by a majority of the committee members present.
- (g) Each Committee member present shall have one vote on any question, except that in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote. If the decision involves change then the casting vote must be used to maintain the status quo.

3.5 Duties and Responsibilities:

.1 All members of the Club are expected to uphold the Rules and promote the objectives and purposes of the Club.

.2 It is the duty of a Secretary to:
